RICHMOND County, February 24, 1767. AVING had a Still-houfe built close by my Dwelling-house, but down in a Gully much out of Sight for the Conveniency of a Spring, now near two Years; and having a large new Copper Still that might work One Hundred and Twenty Gallons or better, with a large Cock at the bottom of it, a fine Pewter Crane Noffel rifing from the Top of the Cap of the Still, with a Loop of Pewter upon the Crane to lik it occationally from the Still; and with is a fine noble Worm well stationed with Pewter from Top to Bottom hi many Parts of the fpiral Curve of the Worm, fix'd up in the Still-House for about fourteen or fifteen Months. I have this Day difcovered by mere Accident, that the faid Still and Worm has been carried off by some Persons, but without its Tub, as the Staves thereof are found lying about in the Swamp. I hereby advertife the Sum of TWEN-TY POUNDS Currency as a Reward to any one or more to difcover by whom the aid Theft has been committed, provided the Thief or Thieves fhall be convicted when brought to Juffice. The Time when this Still was ftolen cannot be certainly pointed out; because as Stilling is a Work only upon Hand perhaps once in a Year, this House can only in its useles Times have been looked into by Accident. There is a Report that one George Keele, a Convict who fome Years ago ferved his Time with me, and has fince his Freedom lived up in Frederick, Fauquier, Culpeper of the other back Counties thereto adjacent, as a Waggoner or Carter. This Keele has been known to have come into this Neighbourhood twice or oftner within these few Months, and about ten Days or a Fortnight ago, came down with a Cart in the Night, and called at a Weaver's House just by Dickinson's Mill in this County for Quarters, but finding the Weaver knew him, did not lodge there, but drove on ; from whence it is prefumable the Bufinefs of carrying off this Still had been projected in fome of his former Trips into this Neighbourhood; and as he was then feen frequently lurking about with one Robert Smith, whom I profecuted fome General Courts ago, for Trefts committed in my Out-Houses, it is not unlikely but this Villainy must have been carried on by them ; two Horfes having been miffing out of this Neigh-bourhood is one of Keele's Trips before this. Note, it is about a Fortnight ago or a little more, that fome of my Family had Occafion to go into the Still-Houfe, and then they think the Scill and all its Appurtenances were there. Now the Time when Keele came laft down was the 12th of the Month and he returned the 13th early with his Cart covered. The Still was fome Years igo fent me from London at about Forty Pound Sterling Price, quite new and never ifed when carried awiy. I have offered a large Reward, hoping that the People of this Courtry will use fome Diligence to detect fuch a Species of Villainy, which may fooner oflater prove the entire Deftruction of many lamilies in this Colony, as they are not fo fituated to croud every Thing under their own Roofs. How eafy is it (fince Carts may be made use of) thus to perpetrate a Robbery upon every Out-Houle in the Country ? And Negroes no Doubt may be hired as well as mine for Liquor to affift in the most daring Attempts. The Weight of this Still was fovery great, that it employ'd five or fix of my beft Hands to carry it down the Hill; and as it appears by fome Tracks, the Cart brought over fome of my Fields, was lodged at the Top of the Hill; fome greater Affistance than common must have been ufed to get it into the Cart, and if the Roads were feen, it would be found to be one prodigious Night's Work. I have been in this Advertifement particular, to let others fee what a Situation they may be in, who have Slaves capable of being thus corrupted by Liquors. at have fome Notion that LC or my Nar- at length was flampt or dotted with a panch upon the Copper or the Cap of the still.

LANDON CARTER.

February 28th, 1767. This very Day I have certain Intelligence fent, to me, that one Simon Rice on Friday the 13th of this Month, as before mentioned, met the faid Keele in his red Coat, with red Gambadoes on, driving & Cart with three Horfes in it, covered over with a red Rug, just by Dickinfon's Mill, when it was fnowing very faft, and as he paffed him, the Wind blowing off a Part of the Rug, difcovered a Worm and Cap of a Still. Therefore it is to be hoped that wherever this Advertisement shall reach, if the faid Krele thould be in those Parts, fome well disposed Perfons will use their Endeavour to have him immediately apprehended. He is a tall lufty Fellow, with the Plowman's lounging forward Gait, and has as much of the drap Gallows in his Face as is common to be feen in noted Villains. It is reported he carries on a thievish Traffick from Virginia into the upper Parts of Maryland, and I fhall be as willing to pay the Reward to any Perfon in that Province intitled to receive it on the before mentioned Terms, as I fhould be if this Thief is apprehended in this Colony.

CHARLES CITY February 26, 1767. N EAR two Years ago, in which Time I might, with Health, have earned Money to pay all my Debta, I advertifed my Willingness to delive: up, upon ath, all I then had, if my Creditors would have accepted it, and have given me Liberty of working for more, to h vehicle the re-maining Balance; but inftend of that, I have been faed and imprifoned, from Time to Time, and at all Times, ever fince, which has flarved, tripp'ed and forever delabled me for carrying on any Work at all hereafter.

Carrying on any Work at all hereafter. I might now bid them adieu any Day I pleafe, and leave them to feek their Money where they cannot find it; but to aft a Part that all the World, I hope, will allow to be fair and honeft in my prefent Circumftances, I make my Creditors the following Offer, which is all in my Power, and the laft I will ever make :

My Creditors are defired to fignify their Pleafare to my Ne-phew John Whitfield, or whoever elle may attend at Mr. James Southell's in Williamfurg, for that Purpole, about the asth of next April General Court.
