Lila Acheson Wallace Garden to Open October 19

The Lila Acheson Wallace Garden at the DeWitt Wallace Gallery will open on Sunday, October 19.

Surrounded by a 19-foot plum-colored brick wall, the garden features a trellis-shaded sitting area with blue stone accents and imposing classical columns similar to those in the Gallery.

The focal point of the garden is a rectangular reflecting pool dotted with water lilies. Two fountains grace each end. The only entrance to the garden is through the Gallery.

The hours of the Gallery are 11 a.m. - 7 p.m. each day and it is open until 9 p.m. on Fridays. Employees are admitted with valid employee passes.

Battle of the Williamsburg Stars October 11 - Dozier School

The stars are going to shine! On Saturday, October 11, the Third Annual Battle of the Williamsburg Stars will take place at Dozier School. Starting at 8 a.m., athletes from Colonial Williamsburg, Anheuser-Busch, Inc., Brown Distributing, Ball Metal, Eastern State Hospital, BASF Fibers, Howmet Turbine Components, and Williamsburg Community Hospital will compete.

Men and women from these teams will test their skills in volleyball, track, tennis, obstacle course, water balloon toss, tug-of-war, and a mystery event. A grand prize trophy will be awarded to the winning team.

The Battle of the Williamsburg Stars is being waged to benefit Big Brothers/Big Sisters, a United Way agency that offers companionship and guidance to children in our area by matching them with adult volunteers.

Admission is free, so com out and cheer your favorite team on to victory!

For additional information contact Cathy Bergstrom in Employee Relations at ext. 7016.
